The image shows the front cover of an old book. The cover is decorated with a dense, multi-colored marbled paper pattern in shades of red, blue, yellow, and black. A small, rectangular, off-white paper label is pasted in the upper center of the cover. The label contains Latin text in a black, serif font. The text is arranged in five lines, with the first line being a header and the subsequent lines providing details about the book's origin and ownership. The label is bordered by a thin black line.

The musical notation consists of two systems. The first system has a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It begins with a repeat sign and a first ending bracket labeled 'R. 1.'. The melody is written on a five-line staff with diamond-shaped notes. The second system continues the melody, also on a five-line staff with diamond-shaped notes. The lyrics are written below the staves, aligned with the notes.
